Emily's Chronicles

AUGUST 2022

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.”- 2 Corinthians 5: 17

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ of Cody UMC,

Soon the briskness of fall will be upon us, but until then we have plenty of summer left to enjoy. The last week of July Alex, Thea and I went up to Luccock Park Church Camp in Paradise Valley, Montana. We missed out on helping with camp last year because I was still recovering from my C-section. I am so glad we got to be a part of camp this year.

This is the camp that I attended since elementary school. I've counseled and led the camp for six years. This is my second year leading the camp as the spiritual leader. Alex and I got married at this camp! Needless to say, camp has a special place in my heart.

Camp is not only a special place, but my time at camp is a time where I get to be renewed. Yes, it is a lot of work putting a camp together. There is something refreshing even in all the planning and preparation. Once the camp is underway, and all the campers begin to arrive, I start to feel the weight of the world leave my shoulders. I see the faces of all those kids light up as they embrace one another and share how their year went.

I walk outside early in the morning and feel the coolness of the mountain air. I hear the birds chirp as they fly by. The sun begins to peak over the mountain and the dew reflects a light and warmth off the meadow. I take a deep breath and feel the Spirit move within me. My soul truly renews at camp. I try to capture that feeling for as long as possible.

I felt the old things fade away and the newness of life fill my heart. Having the opportunity to refresh my mind and spirit in one of the most beautiful places on earth with some of the most incredible friends I've made over the years is exactly what I needed. Being immersed in creation and God's abundance shows me all the ways God is making something new.

May you find a sense of renewal. Even with the busyness and craziness of life, may you find the thing that gives you peace and a fresh start. May God continue to hold you and give you peace and comfort.

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Emily

Capital Campaign for New Carpet

update note Our timeline has slipped on the fund-raising auction. This article reflects those changes.

The Finance Committee, with help from the Trustees, is starting a capital campaign to help fund new carpeting for the church. Trustees have accepted a bid for $36,000 to install carpeting in October. We plan to use some endowment fund money to fund a portion of the expense. We also want to use funds from a capital campaign to fund the remainder. We have a goal to cover up to half the expense, $18,000, with funds generated from the capital campaign.

We are looking for donations from the congregation to help with the campaign. You can make donations through any of our traditional methods. There will be a category you can use for online donations through Church Connect. We just ask that you include a note with any donations that indicates that the donation is for the Carpet Fund. We will be running the campaign through October.

In addition, to direct donations we are also planning an online auction of donated items to generate additional funds. We will be using Swenson's Auctions out of Powell to conduct the auction. Our items will be included in one of Swenson's periodic consignment auctions this fall.

So, if you have some garage sale items or just have some things you want to get rid of this is an opportunity to clean out some clutter and help with our Carpet Campaign at the same time. We intend to collect items over a two-week period around the end of August or early September. If you have some larger items that you need help with, we will have some volunteers from the church which will help with transportation.

Additional information on timing and logistics will be available in August. As you try to decide if anyone would want your stuff, error on the side of donating. If you have questions, contact me or one the Trustees. Every $5 helps. Please no damaged or broken items.

Stay tuned for more information.
